Key takeaways:

- Understand the key provisions of the CAA.
- Gain insight into the latest compliance obligations under the CAA, including new transparency rules, reporting requirements, and fiduciary responsibilities for plan sponsors, TPAs and PBMs.
- Learn how legislation is evolving on patient cost-sharing, qualifying payment amount (QPA) methodology, and independent dispute resolution (IDR).

PRESENTER

Brian Barterls leads Kutak Rock's national health and welfare benefits practice. He advises clients across the country on group health plans, wellness programs, cafeteria plans, health savings accounts, health reimbursement arrangements, and other health and welfare plans. Brian regularly counsels clients on mental health parity, No Surprises Act, HIPAA, ERISA, Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, and COBRA compliance issues. He drafts and negotiates service agreements and business associate agreements for employee benefit plans; prepares plan-related documents, employee communications, and HIPAA policies and procedures; and counsels clients on benefit plan design and administration issues. He assists employers to respond to employer shared responsibility payments under the ACA, as well as inquiries from the Internal Revenue Service and Department of Labor. He also advises clients on employee benefits issues in the context of mergers, acquisitions and divestitures.

You're invited to the UBA Compliance Webinar Series on the second Tuesday of every month.
